SIR,

With reference to your letter No.R.7318-49/Agri. dated the 16th March 1909 forwarding 50 copies of the amend-ments to the Mysore Famine Code of 1906, I have the honor to state that though these changes in the Code have been presumably made in pursuance of para 4 of Government Order No.R.1700-9/Agri.137-06-2 dated the 11th September 1908, it would be well if the amendments be appropriately improved with the stamp of a formal Government Order or Notification

2. I beg also to submit that, as a result of the changes now effected in the Code,, especially the revisions of Sections 15, 36 A and 46, the duties of the Revenue Com-missioner have been materially added to, some of the work devolving on the Secretariat having been transferred to this office.

I have the honor to be,

Preface.

The first edition of the Famine Code was issued in 1906. Since then it has become necessary to introduce several changes into it. Of these, the most important is the transfer to the Revenue Commissioner of the Chief executive control over all measures to be adopted previous to a famine either as a standing preparation against it or on the approach of scarcity. In the ~~following~~ present revised edition of the Famine Code all the amendments necessary to bring it into conformity with the orders issued on the subject from time to time have been incorporated and ~~the present edition~~ it is intended to supersede the previous edition. A separate Manual of Famine Administration has already been issued and supplementary instructions regarding the maintenance of Famine accounts and their audit ~~have~~ have under the Famine Code also been separately published as the Mysore Famine Accounts and Audit Manual.

For convenience of reference an index has been added ~~to the present edition.~~
